CINCY AND IS DOING IT WELL

'Captain Chapman has received orders from the Commissioners to clean out that precinct," replied Mr. York. "He was sent there for that purpose, He is doing it, and I approve of what he is doing and of his efforts to putify that precinct. In his work he has the Hourd and the Chief of Police behind him. The Board told Captain Chapman that it wanted that district cleaned up. We did not tell him how to proceed, and we did not tell him to violate the law in cleaning up the precinct, but we recognize the fact that ordinary means cannot accomplish much over there, and that he has to resort to drastic measures.

This work would have been begun before election but for the fact that it might have given rise to a fairs impression. But that predict is going to be cleaned up thoroughly now. The Foord and Chief Devery are in sympathy with Captain Chapman in his work."

Chief Devery said that Captain Chapman was going along well. Chapman himself affects to be greatly amused by the threat of the cafe-keepers to bring suits against him for damages. He said that no judge, or jury would award any damages for cleaning out vice in the precinct, and he had no fear of suits so long as he had "the respectable element" with him.
